Daniel Gale Sotheby's International Realty Plans First Companywide Virtual Open House Tour

Cold Spring Harbor, NY... April 27, 2020 ... Daniel Gale Sotheby's International Realty is planning Long Island's first companywide virtual open house tour on Sunday, May 3rd. The company will be marketing over 100 properties with a LIVE event during the course of the day, virtually hosting open houses by using Zoom. All featured properties can be found on danielgale.com, through the company Facebook page, Realtor.com and Zillow. "This company wide virtual open house is the first of its kind on Long Island," stated Deborah Hauser, Chief Operating Officer. "We have been searching for a safe way to showcase some of the exceptional properties we represent to as wide an audience as possible," continued Hauser. "We are proud to be leading the way in this new normal." Daniel Gale Sotheby's International Realty will be following all CDC safety protocols while creating this live event and will continue to put the health and safety of all their agents and clients first. "We have maintained our staff through these challenging times," continued Hauser, "and by doing so, have challenged them to find new ways to do business. I think we have landed on something big."
